2020 has been a challenging year for all of us. Our last “regular”, “in-person” meeting was held at the Black Bear Casino on February 21, 2020. Since then, we were on hiatus until August, 2020 at which time we began to reconnect and restore our delegate work as a group. September 11, 2020 was our monthly full delegation Zoom meeting. It has been working well for our group as we continue to work in this way.

As delegates, we are discussing items that we have listed as priority items at each meeting. We have developed committees to work on the smaller projects that are necessary. They are: Survey, Finance, Education/Engagement, Drafting, Facilitation and TEC. Much of our work is done in the large group setting and delegates are doing their homework at home and in local group discussions between large group meetings.

We respectfully submit this Request for Action:

1. Line item the remaining $9,589 (after 16K line item to the survey committee) to the MCT Constitution Reform Delegation. The MCT Constitution Reform Finance Committee shall make requests to the disbursement of the $9,589 for the following uses 1) marketing/printing 2) Travel Stipends up to $100 per person for one meeting (this is particular for the people who are not already being financed to travel by their Band Councils), and 3) Reimbursement for office supplies to individual delegates.
2. When the MCT seeks COVID relief funds to seek funds for the MCT programs to also seek funds for the MCT Constitution Reform Delegation.

• Consider a formal Charter document / Proclamation of Sovereignty

ENROLLMENT / MEMBERSHIP
The Bands continue to discuss / debate position on enrollment
No presented solutions nor agreements as of this date
• Presentation by Red Lake on their enrollment efforts, where are things today?
• Wilder Research Population Projections / Impact on Enrollment
• MCT Resolutions/Restore Full Blood Status

CULTURE
Invocation always
Clan system (also utilized in census building process)
Seven Traditional Teachings
Language

Title:
Minnesota Chippewa Tribe CONSTITUTION
Proclamation of Tribal/Indigenous Sovereignty

Reasoning Statement:
It is the inherent right and the power to govern ourselves.

A sovereign government supported by its citizen members is the only maker of laws in the land, water, or air.

It is having the freedom without any interference or controlling influence from outside sources or other external bodies dictating our values, what we should believe in, and how we move forward in our lives.

“Indigenous Sovereignty” is what is referred to as a term of art. It is distinguishable from Tribal Sovereignty in that it is not a nation-state recognition of inherent sovereignty under nation-state dominion.

Rather, it arises from Indigenous Traditional Knowledge, belonging to each Indigenous nation, tribe, first nation, community, etc. It consists of spiritual ways, culture, language, social and legal systems, political structures, and inherent relationships with lands, waters, and all upon them. Indigenous sovereignty exists regardless of what the nation-state does or does not do. It continues as long as the People that are a part of it continue.

WHEREAS, (some language from shared themes of our preamble)
We speak for the people and for those who cannot speak for themselves. We will protect and secure our lands, water, air, mahnoomin, natural resources, archeological sites, and all things that we hold sacred above and below the surface, and we will follow our traditional laws of nature.

WHEREAS,
We will review, engage, revise, and recommend a constitution document which represents all, protect the health, happiness, and common welfare of our people and our descendants. To protect the rights of our citizens, our land, and natural resources. We will govern ourselves under our own tribal laws free from injustice and ensure that our people remain sovereign through our actions and decisions.

NOW THEREFORE,
Our Minnesota Chippewa Tribe constitution will preserve, secure, and exercise all the inherent sovereign rights and powers, protecting our Creator rights, our treaty rights, and our natural rights, further develop, preserve, and conserve our land, traditions, language, culture, ceremonies, customs, and history.
MCT Drafting Subcommittee – December 4, 2020 meeting

Topic: The Preamble

We discussed the purpose of a preamble:

- The preamble is an introduction.
- The preamble explains who we are.
- The preamble sets forth the intent and purpose of the constitution.

We discussed what weight is given to a preamble. [Example: The preamble to the US constitution is called “the enacting clause” because it declares who is enacting the constitution. But it does not have any substantive legal provisions and does not expand the terms of the constitution.]

We analyzed the different versions of the preamble that each Band put together. Most drafts included similar themes on who we are, the purpose of the constitution, and our inherent rights. But there are also some differences that cannot be resolved by the subcommittee. We identified the similarities and differences below.

The subcommittee recommends that we revisit the preamble after we draft the other sections of the constitution.

Themes included in all (or nearly all) drafts of the Preamble:

- We, the Anishinaabe of the Aanishinaabe Akiin – Bois Forte, Fond du Lac, Grand Portage, Leech Lake, Mille Lacs, and White Earth reservations of the Minnesota Chippewa Tribe do hereby adopt this revised constitution.

- We speak for the people and for those who cannot speak for themselves. We will protect and secure our lands, water, air, manoomin, natural resources, archeological sites, and all things that we hold sacred above and below the surface, and we will follow our traditional laws of nature.

- We adopt this revised constitution for the governance, protection, health, happiness, and common welfare of our people and our descendants. We will protect the rights of our citizens and our land and natural resources. We will govern ourselves under our own tribal laws free from injustice, and ensure that our people will always remain sovereign as we have always been.

- Our constitution will preserve, secure, and exercise all the inherent sovereign rights and powers of the Minnesota Chippewa Tribe. We will protect our Creator rights, our treaty rights, and our natural rights, and develop, preserve, and conserve our land, traditions, language, culture, ceremonies, customs, and history.
Themes to Revisit (included in only some drafts of the Preamble)

Structure of the MCT (conflicts in different drafts)

- We, the Anishinaabe of the Aanishinaabe Akiin comprised of six bands: White Earth, Leech Lake, Mille Lacs, Bois Forte, Fond du Lac, Grand Portage do hereby adopt this revised constitution. We are all of one mind with each other. We are coming together for the shared love for our ancestry, our people, and our children.

- We, the Anishinaabe people of the sovereign nations of Bois Forte, Fond du Lac, Grand Portage, Leech Lake, White Earth, and the Nonremoval Mille Lacs bands recognized under the treaties with the United States government of 1854, 1855, 1863, 1866, and 1867 hereby form a government for Anishinaabe Akiing.

- We, the Anishinaabe people comprised of Bois Forte, Fond du Lac, Grand Portage, Leech Lake, Mille Lacs, White Earth, and Sandy Lake reservations come together this day.

Mino Bimadiziwin (included by two Bands)

- We the original people pledge to honor mino bimadiziwin (“the good life”) for all generations.

Our History

- We are Anishinaabe who throughout history have powerful alliances with other nations and we may continue to align ourselves.

- Our ancestors faithfully followed the megis shell here, to the place where the food grows on water. Our ancestors wisely knew when to fight and with to sign with the Great White Father to Keep us here.

- Our ancestors honored the freedom to choose our own paths, which also honoring all of creation. Therefore, we will always hold space for the sacred ways of our ancestors, while also holding space for those who wish to follow other paths. We honor this balanced way, so that when hard times come, we have many ways to flourish.

- We are the first people of this land, we have survived, and we will remain here forever.

- Brief history of our treaties with the US government (not in any drafts, but discussed by the subcommittee)

- Brief history of the constitutional convention (not in any drafts, but discussed by the subcommittee)

Enrollment

- We welcome all of our descendants, regardless of race or ethnicity, to participate in our lifestyle here in the Anishinaabe lands.

White Earth

What do people think of either doing away with absentee voting or returning it to the original way it was intended. Please give your opinion. The original intention was for people in the military, hospitals or away at school and cannot get home to vote.

Should we speak up when leadership is going beyond the scope of their authority and doing things contrary to the Constitution.

Group Questions

Group 1

Should the role of the MCT remain the same?

We came to the understanding among our group that we have confusion about the TEC and MCT. So we cannot ask that question outright without refinement.

Currently we are recognized as both MCT and our own individual bands. Should this structure of recognition remain the same?

Group 2

Do you have enough information to make an informed decision?

When we speak to people we need to let them know why we are going to contact them. Explain why we are doing the survey and what we are going to do with the results. Ask who, what, why and work on the format of survey document. Find out respondents’ geographical location. Have you read and understood the constitution? How can we help you understand the constitution? Can you make informed decision?

There is a need for committees from each band to receive the surveys. There is a multitude of logistical and internal issues to figure out.

Group 3

What do you expect from the MCT?
What do you expect from government in general?
What should your government do for you?

Group 4
What do you expect from the MCT? The constitution is a governing document. The tribal members have to read the constitution.

Have you read the constitution?

Are you familiar with the constitution?

Do you feel the constitution should be rewritten/reformed?

Strongly agree agree disagree strongly disagree

How much do you know about the MCT Constitution?

1. None

4. Very knowledgeable
5. Expert
Discussion
Sidra we’re trying to figure out how much people know?
Do we really need to find out how knowledgeable people are? We already know people need more information. So we need to do more education first. We could start education and outreach process and then do the survey. The survey results may elicit how well we are engaging with the tribal members.

Teresa
We’re the ones writing the survey. So we need to get information to the people. We have to improve our communication and outreach skills. Today we have discussed culture, education, structure. The extensive list of ideas on the “post its” on the wall can be put into the survey.

Carrie
The technical questions should direct agendas and delegate meetings back home. Engagement with people ust be accomplished.

Liz Jaakola
Other native nations have gone through the same process of writing a constitution. They have probably asked survey questions which are applicable to us. The cultural milieu will be the most difficult to work on. How are we communicating with each other? The actual words aren’t as important as the way in which we are doing it.

Brandy Fraser
Can we get the information out in chapters so people don’t have to read everything all at once.

Beth
Information has to be disseminated in multiple ways.

April
If the constitution is submitted to a secretarial election, will you come out and vote?

Louie
A lot of people aren’t aware constitutional change is even being attempted. The survey will show how such we’re doing.

Doug
Put information online and teach people at the same time.

Discuss for ten minutes what you have learned today.

Discussion about the money for mailing the survey and what fund it is coming from.

Motion passed to create a survey subcommittee.
Passed 5 – 1

More discussion about survey. There are organizations such as Native Nations Institute experienced in survey design. The survey must be done according to the established norms to make the survey results accurate. Tribal members have participated in surveys before.

Motion to create education subcommittee.
